

Leadership Pipeline Audit

Manager / Peer Assessment

Person you are Rating: _____ Your Name: _____ Date: _____

Your relationship to this person: ☐ Manager ☐ Peer ☐ Other:

This is not a performance review. It asks how this person contributes at work, not how well they do their job, and not their level or title. For each of the ten items below, check the one option that best describes how they actually work most of the time. Base your answers on what you have directly observed, not on their title, tenure, or potential. There are no right answers and no option is better than another. Takes about 10 minutes.

PART ONE

How they work

1. Where the direction for their work comes from

- | | | | |
|---|--|--|---|
| ☐ A They are told what to work on and check in often to stay on track. | ☐ B They are given a goal and decide for themselves how to get there. | ☐ C They set direction for a team and tie its work to broader priorities. | ☐ D They set direction for a business, or a major part of one. |
|---|--|--|---|

2. The scope of what they are accountable for

- | | | | |
|---|---|--|---|
| ☐ A A defined piece of a project that someone else owns. | ☐ B Whole projects that they own from start to finish. | ☐ C The output of a group, integrated across several areas of work. | ☐ D Which work the organization takes on in the first place. |
|---|---|--|---|

3. What people value this person for

- | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|
| ☐ A Being dependable. They deliver the basics and are easy to work with. | ☐ B Their expertise. People go to them because they know the area best. | ☐ C Making others effective and raising the capability of the group. | ☐ D Their judgment on where the organization should go and what it should stop. |
|---|--|---|--|

4. How their results actually get produced

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| ☐ A Through their own effort, with regular guidance from someone more experienced. | ☐ B Through their own effort, working independently. | ☐ C Through other people, by enabling, coaching, and influencing them. | ☐ D Through structure and resources. They shape the conditions others work in. |
|---|---|---|---|

5. Their part in other people's development

- | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|
| ☐ A They are mostly the one learning, from more experienced colleagues. | ☐ B They share what they know when asked, but developing others is not their focus. | ☐ C They coach, mentor, and develop people as a core part of their work. | ☐ D They sponsor people into key roles and test them for bigger responsibility. |
|--|--|---|--|

6. Who they work with regularly

- | | | | |
|---|--|--|---|
| ☐ A Their immediate team and the people who direct their work. | ☐ B A network of specialists in their own discipline. | ☐ C A broad internal network across functions, plus contacts in the industry. | ☐ D External stakeholders: customers, investors, partners, the market. |
|---|--|--|---|

7. How they get others to act

- | | | | |
|--|--|---|--|
| ☐ A They mostly accept direction and have little say beyond their own work. | ☐ B They persuade people on the merits of their technical judgment. | ☐ C They use formal and informal influence to move ideas through the organization. | ☐ D They control resources (people, money, information) and decide where they go. |
|--|--|---|--|

8. What they are typically thinking about

- | | | | |
|--|--|---|---|
| ☐ A What is in front of them this week. | ☐ B The problems and standards of their own discipline. | ☐ C How their group's work fits the bigger picture and connects to other groups. | ☐ D Where the whole organization needs to be several years from now. |
|--|--|---|---|

9. What they do when work hits an obstacle

- ☐ A They raise it for direction on how to handle it.
- ☐ B They find a way around it themselves and deliver anyway.
- ☐ C They clear barriers out of the way so other people's work can move.
- ☐ D They change the systems and processes that create the barrier.

10. Where their new ideas go

- ☐ A They take initiative inside the boundaries they are given.
- ☐ B They innovate within their own area of expertise.
- ☐ C They carry ideas across boundaries and get other groups behind them.
- ☐ D They set the agenda for what the organization takes on next.

PART TWO

Relative performance

Compared with their peers (people at a similar level doing comparable work), how would you rate their overall performance and impact? Circle one number.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
1 – Lowest performance among peers				5 – About average		10 – Highest performance among peers

PART THREE

Reflection

Where does this person make their biggest contribution today, and who benefits from it?

What single change in how they work would most increase their impact?

PART ONE TALLY

Go back through Part One and count how many times you chose each letter.

A:_____ B:_____ C:_____ D:_____

There is no score to add up and no letter that is better than another. The pattern is the point — your facilitator will walk you through what it means.
