

Leadership Pipeline Audit

Self-Assessment

Your name: _____ Role: _____ Date: _____

This is not a performance review. It asks how you contribute at work, not how well you do your job, and not your level or title. For each of the ten items below, check the one option that best describes how you work most of the time. Answer for what is true today, not for what your title implies, what you did in a previous role, or what you are working toward. There are no right answers and no option is better than another. Takes about 10 minutes.

PART ONE

How you work

1. Where the direction for my work comes from

- ☐ A I am told what to work on and check in often to stay on track.
- ☐ B I am given a goal and decide for myself how to get there.
- ☐ C I set direction for a team and tie their work to broader priorities.
- ☐ D I set direction for a business, or a major part of one.

2. The scope of what I am accountable for

- ☐ A A defined piece of a project that someone else owns.
- ☐ B Whole projects that I own from start to finish.
- ☐ C The output of a group, integrated across several areas of work.
- ☐ D Which work the organization takes on in the first place.

3. What people value me for

- ☐ A Being dependable. I deliver the basics and I am easy to work with.
- ☐ B My expertise. people come to me because I know this area best.
- ☐ C Making others effective and raising the capability of the group.
- ☐ D My judgment on where the organization should go and what it should stop.

4. How my results actually get produced

- ☐ A Through my own effort, with regular guidance from someone more experienced.
- ☐ B Through my own effort, working independently.
- ☐ C Through other people — by enabling, coaching, and influencing them.
- ☐ D Through structure and resources — I shape the conditions others work in.

5. My part in other people's development

- ☐ A I am mostly the one learning, from more experienced colleagues.
- ☐ B I share what I know when asked, but developing others is not really my job.
- ☐ C I coach, mentor, and develop people as a core part of my work.
- ☐ D I sponsor people into key roles and test them for bigger responsibility.

6. Who I work with regularly

- ☐ A My immediate team and the people who direct my work.
- ☐ B A network of specialists in my own discipline.
- ☐ C A broad internal network across functions, plus contacts in my industry.
- ☐ D External stakeholders — customers, investors, partners, the market.

7. How I get others to act

- ☐ A I mostly accept direction; I have little say beyond my own work.
- ☐ B I persuade people on the merits of my technical judgment.
- ☐ C I use formal and informal influence to move ideas through the organization.
- ☐ D I control resources — people, money, information — and decide where they go.

8. What I am typically thinking about

- ☐ A What is in front of me this week.
- ☐ B The problems and standards of my own discipline.
- ☐ C How my group's work fits the bigger picture and connects to other groups.
- ☐ D Where the whole organization needs to be several years from now.

9. What I do when work hits an obstacle

- ☐ A I raise it and wait for direction on how to handle it.
- ☐ B I find a way around it myself and deliver anyway.
- ☐ C I clear barriers out of the way so other people's work can move.
- ☐ D I change the systems and processes that create the barrier.

10. Where my new ideas go

- ☐ A I take initiative inside the boundaries I am given.
- ☐ B I innovate within my own area of expertise.
- ☐ C I carry ideas across boundaries and get other groups behind them.
- ☐ D I set the agenda for what the organization takes on next.

PART TWO

Relative performance

Compared with your peers (people at a similar level doing comparable work), how would you rate your overall performance and impact? Circle one number.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
1 - Lowest performance among peers				5 - About average		10 - Highest performance among peers

PART THREE

Reflection

Where do you make your biggest contribution today, and who benefits from it?

What single change in how you work would most increase your impact?

PART ONE TALLY

Go back through Part One and count how many times you chose each letter.

A:___ B:___ C:___ D:___

There is no score to add up and no letter that is better than another. The pattern is the point — your facilitator will walk you through what it means.
